Three high school students from Plant City will join more than 50 others gathering in Tallahassee this week for the 11th annual Florida Youth Leadership Forum.

The event is sponsored by The Able Trust, also known as the Florida Governor's Alliance for the Employment of Citizens with Disabilities, and the Florida Developmental Disabilities Council.

Plant City delegates include Kellsey Bruner, Kaysee Jones and Rickey Nunley.

During the visit, the students will be learning leadership skills, tour the state Capitol, hear from business executives and participate in workshops on such topics as career and personal goals. For many of the students, this will be their first independent experience away from home.

The forum starts today and ends Sunday.
