

THE ABLE TRUST™

Lori Fahey

Fahey, of Tallahassee, is President and CEO of The Family Café, a non-profit focused on connecting Floridians with unique abilities and their families with information, training and resources. As a mother of a child with special needs, she also volunteers her time with the Family Run Executive Director's Leadership Association and the National Federation of Families for Children's Mental Health. Fahey earned her bachelor's degree in social work and education from Florida State University.